Besides the litigation, is there anything else we can say in terms of answering her related questions?

Subject: Center for Biological Diversity lawsuit

Hello - I am writing a story for Westlaw about a lawsuit filed yesterday in Portland federal court by the Center for Biological Diversity against the EPA alleging that it has failed to finalize a list of impaired waters in Oregon under the Clean Water Act. (copy attached) The lawsuit said the EPA was required to finalize the list within the 30-days after it partially disapproved of the state's list on Dec. 21, 2016. I see on the EPA's web site that a comment period on the EPA's proposed additions to the list closed April 3, 2017. Can you tell me the status of the EPA's proposed additions? If you can't comment on the record, I would appreciate it if you could point me to any public documents explaining the status of the EPA's efforts. Thanks very much.

My deadline is 1 p.m. Eastern time today.
